

Physical, Mental, Technique, Equipment
The Components of a successful golf game.

With over 36 years of golf instruction experience, Stephen Wresh has worked with a wide diversity of players including juniors, seniors, Special Olympics and individuals with physical limitations.

This has led to a teaching philosophy that believes:

- Each individual has goals that will dictate the development program that must be followed. Whether the student wants more consistency, lower scores or to eliminate a slice, the instructor must work with the student to develop a program that will allow them to achieve their goals.
- One golf swing does not work for all golfers.
- The fundamentals of the golf swing including grip, stance, alignment and the basic swing must be developed around each individual's physical abilities & body type.

With this philosophy in mind an instructional program has been developed at the Stephen Wresh Golf Academy that treats individuals as an individual. Even in classes with multiple students, special effort is given to provide the diversity in instruction that will allow each individual to maximize their abilities.

Ranked by Henry Griffitts as the Top Teacher/Fitter in the country for over seven years, Stephen was awarded his Master Club Fitting™ status. Due to his dedication and professionalism with his students he was also awarded the Randy Henry Award in 2003 and the Jim Griffitts Award in 2007.

GIVE THE GIFT OF BETTER GOLF

I've had 9 back surgeries and 9 fused areas in my back and neck. Before I met Steve I couldn't hit my driver 100 yards. After 2-months with Steve I can now play competitively in The Villages.

John Sette; The Villages

Steve has the unique ability to quickly diagnose and assess a golfer's problems and abilities. He inspires confidence. Now we smile and think, "We can play golf". Let's go.

Joyce and Leonard Decker; The Villages

Steve is such a patient teacher. He teaches so you understand what he is trying to teach you. After seeing my improvement my husband decided he needed to take lessons from Steve.

Sara Lovarco; Wildwood, FL

When we came to Continental neither of us had ever touched a club. He has unlimited patience and an ability to teach newcomers. Because of Steve's positive influence we are now lovers of the game of golf.

J.O. and Fran Hurley;
Continental Country Club

Steve's method of teaching was to not completely redo our swings but to improve on the game we had. Olivia has moved from the front to the middle tees and is playing and enjoying golf even more.

Roger and Olivia Ringle; Summerfield

Continental Country Club was the first golf course designed by Ron Garl. Ron has designed many famous courses including three of Disney World's courses. The championship layout is well known among many of today's touring professionals, who played it early in their careers on Florida's mini tour.

Golf Digest awarded Continental Country Club a "2-Star Award Winner" for Places to Play in 1996-97.

In 2022 the greens were renovated with Champions Ultradwarf grass.

The course is open to public play and tee times may be reserved by calling 352-748-3293.
